

JAM DC Presents Jewish and Muslim Family Story Time, Kids Crafts & Author Panel featuring...

Hena Khan - Author of Night of the Moon, A Muslim Holiday Story
Jacqueline Jules - Author of Abraham's Search for God
Madelyn Rosenberg - Author of The Schmutzy Family
Mohamed Abdel-Kader - Author of What does a Muslim Look Like?

Sunday, April 28, 2013 2-4pm

Mary Riley Styles Public Library
120 N Virginia Ave, Falls Church, VA 22046
(Opposite the Cherry Hill Park)

FREE and Open to the Public - Registration required by 4/23 - Seats are limited!
Please RSVP at JAM DC on Facebook or <http://jamdcfamilystorytime.eventbrite.com/>

2:00-2:30 Family Story Time with Authors Reading from their books
2:30-3:00 Moderated Panel Discussion and Crafts for kids
3:00-3:30 Questions & Answers from Audience and Henna Artist on hand for kids!
3:30-4:00 Book Sale/Signing, Sweet Treats & Refreshments

Books available for purchase & signing by authors, an inspiration to us all!

JAM DC (Jews and Muslims DC) exists to bring together Jews and Muslims in the Washington DC area through social, educational, cultural, and service activities, as well as to publicize these bridge-building activities to serve as an inspiration locally, nationally and internationally.